

SMSC at Eccleston Mere Primary School

Social	Moral	Cultural	Spiritual
Collaborative learning; use of talk partners. Circle time opportunities; class worship times. Role play. Prefect systems. Reading buddies. Love to learn sessions. Wider opportunities – sports; clubs; before and after school clubs. Christmas fayres; Easter Bingo.	Class rules set with children at the start of each year. School rules explained and consistent throughout school, linked to our behaviour policy. Assemblies on School Values have taken place, as well as on British values. Reward systems are interwoven into the wider life of school. School Council and Eco Council are supported in making challenging decisions. Mental Health day. PSHE and RE promoting questioning / addressing key moral issues / values. Class worship times to talk about wider issues. Encourage children to resolve conflicts. Pastoral manager.	Sporting events and competitions. Music events- pantomime; theatre visit; participation in concerts; local events; Young Voices. Music tuition opportunities / Rock Steady Band. Wide range of texts planned in to new English scheme. Artist study in each year group. Studies of famous and influential people across History, Science, RE and other areas. Charity work. Art opportunities. Wider sporting and leisure opportunities, such as Yoga, Zumba, Squash, Golf. Democracy day	Assembly times, with reflection opportunities. Reverend Sonya’s involvement with school / church links. Religious services – in school and wider. Yoga / mindfulness. Collective worship and class reflection times. Enjoyable learning opportunities – allowing for success, pride. Poetry teaching / Art approach. Music teaching throughout school. Outdoor provision – outdoor learning day; PGL. Opportunities for awe and wonder in all subjects.